

Journalist-of-the-Year Award Nomination Form

The Journalist-of-the-Year award is to honor those in the media field who throughout their career have publicized consulting engineering topics advancing the engineering profession and affecting policy leadership as a media journalist.

Nominees have made a significant contribution to our state and to the engineering profession, bringing to light current engineering issues, influencing leadership on public policy. The recipient of this award has increased public awareness relative to the current infrastructure needs and elevated the public opinion of the engineering profession. Through the published work has made positive contributions to the consulting engineering profession.

In order to accurately review your nomination's eligibility, please refer to prerequisites below.

PREREQUISITE (check a minimum of 3 which apply)

- Has published work affecting public policy leadership decisions relating to the profession
- Has demonstrated exceptional talent bringing engineering issues to the public's attention
- Has made a positive influence on public opinion of the engineering profession
- Has promoted ACECNJ's program through public media
- Has collaborated with the consulting engineering profession in New Jersey
- Through published work promoted the engineering profession to attract a diverse field of young people to the next generation of engineers

Nominee's Name & Affiliation

Comments:

Please submit this form to ACECNJ via email at info@acecnj.org